

FABULOUS FRIDAY

ALERT: #258 DATE: February 26, 2012 TO: Incline Village & Crystal Bay Property Owners FROM: Village League Tax Revolt Committee

Dear Incline Village & Crystal Bay Property Taxpayers,

Two powerful court decisions in our favor were entered last Friday. We had requested a Status Conference before Judge Brent Adams due to the excruciatingly slow payment of refunds by the County, with no end in sight. The tax refund payments are now on a fixed schedule. The judge set a deadline of August 23, 2013, for the County Treasurer to complete the repayment process. Six percent interest will continue to accrue on refunds until paid and sanctions will be levied by the Court against the Treasurer should any refund be left unpaid after that date.

NEVADA SUPREME COURT RULES

The Nevada Supreme Court also issued an Order granting our appeal of a District Court decision and directing the District Court to send the case to the State Board of Equalization to equalize property valuations throughout the state. This case was filed in 2003 and has met with a great deal of resistance. This is the second time in the case that we have had to take the issues to the Supreme Court and that the Supreme Court has decided in favor of taxpayers. This case concerns, in part, the lack of equalization between Incline Village/Crystal Bay and the lakeside portion of Douglas County.

You can read the order by clicking on the following link: www.NevadaPropertyTaxRevolt.org/12/NV-SupremeCourt-120224.pdf

Our goal has always been to obtain equal and uniform property taxation for every taxpayer and the Nevada Supreme Court agrees. We applaud this courageous decision by the Supreme Court Justices.

Results from implementing this Order will not be quickly obtained but we are not deterred. We will keep all of you informed as the process continues.

Again, our grateful thanks for your support and your thoughts through all of these years. The battle continues.

Sincerely,

Maryanne Ingemanson
